

Introductory Workshop on Chittara Painting
From 4th-7th September 2009

Chittara is an autochthonous art practice of an indigenous community called Deeveru residing at Sagar, Shimoga. Chittara drawings are intricate patterns that represents the auspicious ceremonies and rituals of life symbolized in geometric patterns. Its is a socio cultural art practice of women passed on from generation, using eco friendly materials. Center for Revival of Indigenous Art (CFRIA) is organizing an Introductory Training on Chittara Painting at the following venues-

Serenity

#8/1, 5th Main,
Jayamahall Extn,
Bangalore-560046

CFRIA

452, 1st Floor, III Cross
Wilson Garden,
Bangalore-560027

For Registration please contact at-

080-2223 5413,

M- 9886064822, 9686535353

Email- cfria.art@gmail.com

www.cfria.in