with Guest Speaker,

Vicki Dickson of VelocityWorks will give a small demo of her upcoming REACH course on a better way to do business and training:

The Horse & the Gray Flannel Suit

An intro to Equine Assisted Leadership Training.

“Horses respond very directly to different leadership styles,” says Dickson. “It’s a fun, non-threatening, but very revealing exercise for the participants.”

We all have difficult situations and want to know how to implement wise counsel/business, resulting in a win/win for all.

Come and learn through demonstration with the horses of how we can handle the tough areas we often encounter from day to day.
