

When friends come over

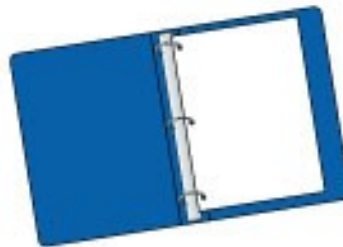

Sometimes other children come over to visit.

We might play together.

My friend and I could look through the playdate book and choose something to do together that we both enjoy.

3-ring binder

We might take turns playing a game my friend likes and then a game I like. That is okay.

It is fun to play games my friend and I both enjoy.

happy

