I was asked if I would be willing to write a letter of recommendation for Mark Kosoglow. My response was, "absolutely." Mark "the fundraiser guy" is exceptional. I have been participating in fundraising efforts in education for more than 23 years in three different states. Mark gets my vote of endorsement.

I think what I respect most about Mark is his character. Mark has demonstrated himself to be fully trustworthy and dependable. He is a man of integrity. Mark entered our school and worked hard to understand our needs, our goals and our community. He strongly communicated his commitment to make things work through his time, effort and accessibility. I have received more communication, tips, help and responsiveness from Mark than from any sales representative prior to him. Mark is here to serve. He listens to the input of students, staff and administration; then, uses this to inform the campaign. Mark knows young people. He knows how to communicate to them and how to motivate them.

I thoroughly enjoy working with Mark and watching him work with my students and staff. He brightens our day when he walks through to door to our school. We are always glad to see him. It is terrific to have someone with Mark's excellence in professionalism, business savvy and efficiency combined with his sincerity, sensitivity and impeccable character.

Mark Kosoglow is tops in my book!

Sincerely,

Mark W. Herman
