

Free or Cheap - Tools for Non-Profit Success

The Panel

GSA Tech Council / Thinkhammer

phil@thinkhammer.com

Phil Yanov

TruColor Printing

mike.sokoloff@trucoloronline.com

Mike Sokoloff

WSI Webworks

dfowler@wsiwebworks.com

Doug Fowler

Sander Sales Training

rdavis@sandler.com

Russ Davis

It's almost free.

Microsoft Outlook

Grab contacts from emails, websites.

<http://www.broadlook.com/products/contactcapture/>

Contact Capture

Find anything via your phone.

1-800-Goog-411

<http://www.google.com/goog411/>

Goog411

Xobni for GMail. Makes images, attachments, conversations available in a powerful interface.

<http://www.xoopit.com>

Xoopit

Super power tool for Outlook.

<http://www.xobni.com>

Xobni

Start your own community.

<http://www.ning.com>

Ning

Send emails. Manage the list. Promote your organization.

<http://www.constantcontact.com>

Constant Contact

Google Profile

Make your info searchable

<http://www.google.com/profiles>

Basecamp

Manage Projects online, free and cheap versions help you keep things moving.

<http://www.basecampHQ.com>

Facebook

Set up fan pages for your product or service for free. Promote to your network, let them promote to their friends.

<http://www.facebook.com>

Go To Meeting

Work with clients far away or near without leaving your desk.

<http://www.gotomeeting.com>

Google Voice

Click to call, multi-destination voice mail, voice to text, free.

<http://www.google.com/voice>

Google Docs

Collaboration on the fly. It's free. Share spreadsheets, docs, pdf, presentations.

<http://docs.google.com>

Skype

Free PC to PC audio and video conferencing with cheap calling.

<http://www.skype.com>

Eventbrite

Host and manage events. Sell tickets.

<http://www.eventbrite.com>

